CODEO MOURNS JUSTICE V.C.R.A.C CRABBE

The Coalition of Domestic Election Observers (CODEO) has learnt, with deep sorrow, the passing of its Co-Chair, Justice V.C.R.A.C. Crabbe, whose death occurred this morning, September 7, 2018 after a short illness. CODEO expresses its deepest condolences to his family on this loss. Indeed, the entire people of Ghana have lost an illustrious son.

Justice Crabbe rendered several decades of public service to this country during which period he served the country in diverse capacities and across different spheres of national life, including the Judiciary, the Electoral Commission, and the Attorney-General's Department.

Since joining CODEO in the year 2004 as Co-Chair with Professor Miranda Greenstreet, Justice Crabbe worked to promote electoral integrity, transparency and credibility in Ghana.

Justice Crabbe will be remembered for his selflessness, dedication and commitment to duty.

Our heartfelt condolences to all.

Damirifa due.

Signed:

Albert Arhin,
National Coordinator, CODEO
